American Center Tashkent offers to its users a wide range of resources and services. Our primary mission is to provide up-to-date, reliable and comprehensive information on the United States and promote better understanding of American culture, history and values. Our core resources are concentrated in the areas of American Studies, English Learning, Education, American Fiction, History and Culture.

The Center provides free access to high-speed Internet for conducting research. Our staff can provide patrons with tips on Internet search techniques and offer advice on appropriate web resources. Training/demonstration sessions on the resources and services of the Center can be arranged for groups upon request.
